NORTH SHORE CHILD & FAMILY

GUIDANCE CENTER

Performance by KENNY G

Grammy-award winning saxophonist Kenny G recorded the best-selling instrumental album of all time in the Diamond-selling, 12-times-Platinum 1992 Breathless. His latest release, New Standards, his 19th studio album, could well be used to describe his four-decade body of work, a vision of jazz that helped launch both a musical genre and radio format. New Standards continues the musical path that has seen Kenny G sell 75 million albums around the world.

Entertainment is generously underwritten by The Leeds Family.

NEARLY 70 YEARS OF HOPE AND HEALING

In 1953, a group of visionary parents recognized the need for programs serving families whose children were experiencing depression, anxiety and a host of mental health issues. Today, North Shore Child & Family Guidance Center has grown into the premier children's mental health agency on Long Island, providing hope and healing to nearly 7,000 children and their families each year all across Nassau County. For nearly 70 years, the Guidance Center has created innovative programs that lift the minds, hearts and spirits of children and families living through the devastating effects of divorce, bullying, the loss of a loved one, substance use, teen pregnancy, suicide, postpartum depression and other crises. Innovative and compassionate treatment is provided to all who seek help—and the Guidance Center never turns anyone away for inability to pay.
